Moscow, October 7.

THE Day before Yesterday arrived a Courier from Finland, dispatched by Field Marshal Lacy, with a Plan for the Disposition of the Russian Forces into Garrisons and Winter Quarters in different Places in the Dutchy of Finland. Her Czarish Majesty has approved the said Plan with a very few Alterations, and has appointed General Keith to be Commander in chief of all the Troops which are to remain in Finland. All the Troops belonging to the Horse and Foot Guards are already returned to Petersbourg from the Campaign in Finland. The Season still continuing very mild, her Czarish Majesty frequently takes the Diversions of Hunting, Hawking, and Shooting.

Florence, Oct. 27. A Detachment of 3000 Spaniards has taken Post at Casalechio, three Miles from Boulogn towards the Mountains. Another Detachment of 150 Michelets has advanced towards Pianoro, on the Road to Florence; all the Remainder of the Army is cantoned in the Suburbs of the Town and Convents, where they have also erected their Hospitals. M. de Gages received in one Day three Spanish Couriers; from Spain and from the Army of the Infant Don Philip, and it seems that since that Time he does not make the least Disposition for forcing his Passage over the Panaro; on the contrary, the Officers are preparing to divert themselves, having caused a Theatre for Opera's to be opened, and ordered a second, which is to be ready at Christmas. They had given Cloth to the Taylors of Boulogn for new cloathing one of their Regiments; but on the Departure of the Letters the Officers took it back again, without giving any Reason for so doing. From this Circumstance some would infer, that their Stay will not be so long as they would have People believe. The Hussars of the Queen's Army advance now and then in small Bodies, to give the Alarm, towards the advanced Piquets of the Michelets, but without firing any Musquet Shot on either Side, and all the Booty they have brought off hitherto consists of 12 Waggon's of Hay, designed for the Spanish Detachment of Casalechio, which the Hussars conducted to their Army at Buonporto. The Spaniards receive almost every Day small Reinforcements by the Way of Romagna, and it is reckoned their Army consists now of 18000 effective Soldiers. The Electress Dowager Palatine has begun again to go out to visit the Churches as usual, but it is observed that she is much weaker, and in general very much broke. Since the Arrival of an Officer from Count de Traun, sent on Purpose to General Braitewitz, there is no more Talk of all the regular Troops advancing towards the Frontiers of the Boulognese. The Detachments sent to St. Martino remain there, as do also the 200 Cuirassiers at Prato; but the two Battallions of Lorrain Guards arrived here from Leghorn, are got into their Quarters in the Citadels, and keep Guard at the Gates and at the Palace as before.

From the Head Quarters at Waidhaussen in the Upper Palatinate, October 27.

We are now marching under the Command of the Grand Duke with an Army consisting of 30,000 Men compleat, besides 3000 Croates, and five Regiments of Hussars. Berenclau's Body in Bavaria is also reinforced with four Regiments of Horse, and all the Croates which were formerly with Marshal Khevenhuller in Bavaria; so that this General will be superior to Marshal Seckendorf. The French are marching with great Precipitation between Weiden and Neymarcht, and it is thought will soon, if they have not already, evacuate Egra. Our Hussars and Croates are close after them, and we are every Day more and more incumbered with Prisoners. They bring us in regularly between 2 and 300 every Day, and kill as many. We have taken a great Number of the Horse Prisoners, which were fine Troops, but are now all ruin'd by their desperate Marches, especially that towards Caaden, and the Retreat from thence. Their Infantry is much inferior to that of the other Armies they brought into the Empire. It looks as if the Grand Duke intended to keep close to the Danube. We are determin'd to follow them to the last Man. Seckendorf must, it is thought, either rereat, or be destroyed by Berenclau, or fall into our Hands. All the Places along the Danube, as Ingolstadt, and Straubing, are destitute of Troops, Marshal Seckendorf having taken all with him; so that we hope to be Masters of that River. Marshal Bellisle seems now without Resource, and is ill provided at Prague.

Copenhagen, Nov. 3, N. S. In the Night between the 30th and 31st, the Princess of Wirtemberg Oels was brought to bed of a Prince, who lived not above two Hours after the Birth. The Queen was present at the Labour. Lieutenant General Prætorius having been named General of the Infantry in the Dutch Service, and having thereupon asked and obtained his Dismission from that of Denmark, his Danish Majesty has promoted Lieutenant General Scholten, to the Rank of General of the Infantry.

Berlin, Nov. 3, N. S. The Chevalier la Rosée is arrived from Francfort, in order to reside here as Minister from the Emperor. This Gentleman has not as yet had his Audience of the King of Prussia, who is still at Potzdam, where it is said he will remain for eight or ten Days longer.

Dresden, Nov. 11. As the Armies remove from these Frontiers, our Accounts become later and more uncertain; some mention, that Part of Maillebois's was the 4th at Stadt-am-Hoff near Ratisbon, and that Prince Charles was then at Charn. Others, that the two Armies were so near to each other by Donaustoff, that it was thought they would come to some Action; and all agree, that they are both marched towards Bavaria, the French with the Design of breaking into Austria, and the Austrians of acting in the Defence of their own, and what they still hold in the former Country, and harrassing their Enemy by their Light Horse, which, it is said, they they have done to his great Detriment, since the said Marshal begun his Retreat from Bohemia, and that his Corps daily diminishes by Sickness and Desertion, and the Return of many Officers to France. It is reported that Seckendorf is in some Danger, if not timely succoured, the Imperialists having, after their Success at Altheim, been defeated at Scharding, but this is doubtful. He is endeavouring to raise a Division in Austria, by encouraging the Bavarian Boors to conform to a Patent from the Emperor, enjoying them to make Incursions into that Province with what Arms or Tools they can muster, and to burn and plunder where-ever they are able.

Hague, Nov. 16, N. S. All our Accounts agree, that the Austrian and French Armies were upon the Banks of the Danube, and very near each other. Some Advices say, that the Great Duke was making a Bridge over that River near Deckendorf, and that Marshal Maillebois was doing the same between Kelheim and Ratisbon. The French give out here, that their Intention is to besiege Passau.

Dublin, October 31.

Yesterday being his Majesty's Birth-Day, the Great Guns were fir'd at the Barracks, and answered by Volleys from the Regiments in Garrison which were drawn out upon Oxmantown Green: At Noon there was a numerous Appearance of the Nobility, and other Persons of Distinction at the Castle, to compliment their Excellencies the Lords Justices upon this Occasion, before whom a Song was performed. In the Evening there was a Play given by their Excellencies for the Entertainment of the Ladies; and the Night concluded with Bonfires, Illuminations, and all other Demonstrations of Joy.

Whitehall, November 2, 1742.

Whereas on Sunday the 26th Day of September last, the Body of Elizabeth Bevan, aged about Twenty Five Years, and supposed to be six Months gone with Child, was found, barbarously murdered, in a Barn, in the Parish of Nevellsfield, in the Hundred of St. Brewials, Forest of Dean, and County of Gloucester, by a Person or Persons unknown; His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons who committed the said Murder, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon, to any one of them, except the Person that actually murdered the said Elizabeth Bevan, who will discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; and also a Reward of Fifty Pounds to such Person or Persons, making such Discovery (except the Murderer as aforesaid) payable upon the Conviction of such Offender or Offenders.

CARTERET.

And as a farther Encouragement for such Discovery, the Right Honourable Thomas Lord Viscount Gage, does promise a Reward of Twenty Pounds, to be paid by his Lordship's Steward, at his Seat at High Meadows, in the said County.

General Post Office, London, July 3, 1742.

Whereas divers Persons, thro' Ignorance or Carelessness, frequently put Letters into the General Post Offices, and the Receiving Houses both in Town and Country, directed on board of Ships, and to Foreign Parts, without paying at the same Time the Postage, as ought to be done: And whereas Letters and Packets are often put into the said Offices with Money and Rings inclosed, and in Fraud of his Majesty's Revenue, divers Persons presume to send Letters with false and counterfeit Franks; This is to acquaint the Publick, that no Letters under any of the Circumstances aforesaid have any Right by Law to be forwarded.

Note, That Letters going out of Great Britain (except to France, Holland, and Flanders) have by the ancient Usage of this Office paid the Foreign Postage, and are required by the Act of Parliament so to do, at the Office in Great Britain where the same are first put in.
